

Donor Charter

As a charity seeking donations from the public we, Fighting Words, aim to comply with the funding principles outlined by the Charities Regulator.

Our pledge is to treat all our donors with respect, honesty and openness.

We commit to being accountable and transparent so that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in us.

Our fundraising activities will not be unreasonably persistent, intrusive or place undue pressure on people to donate.

We promise we will effectively apply your gifts to us for their intended purposes. We commit that you, our donors and prospective donors will:

- Be informed of our mission, and of the way we intend to use donated resources.
- Be informed of the identity of those serving on our governing board, and that the board will exercise prudent judgement in its stewardship responsibilities.
- Have access to our most recent financial statements.
- Be assured your gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
- Receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.
- Be assured that information about your donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
- Expect that all relationships with individuals representing the charity will be dealt with professionally.
- Be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees or hired third party agents.
- Have easily available the agreed procedures for making and responding to complaints.
- Have the opportunity for any names to be deleted from mailing lists and to be informed if we intend to share the mailing lists with third parties.
- Receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers to questions you might have of us.
